Lulu.com, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We built a device that demonstrated attraction to electrical fields and submitted that proposal as Elemental Attraction to NASA in 96 but it was rejected. NASA chose the Tether Experiment instead, which also proved part of my theory was correct and so was Tesla s. My friends and I started on a large scale device of our own. In 1997-98 we merged it into a twin engine 1950s Beechcraft and it did what we thought it would do in the gravity field of the Earth. The gravity suspension device preformed beyond our expectations; this proved that Nikola Tesla was unerringly right about electric flying machines. I possessed a key that demonstrated it as I stumbled upon it and knew what I had discovered was profound. I and many others in the world had witnessed strange physics in our skies and now it looked very plausible that we could duplicate a physics that has been demonstrated in our reality many, many times throughout history.The name on the cover is the name I go by now as we hide.
