

A Grand Sociology Lesson

By KJ Hannah Greenberg

Lit Fest Press / Festival of Language. Paperback. Condition: New. 152 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Beginning a Greenberg poem is like waking up in a foreign country only to realize that you do, in fact, speak the language and the country is, in fact, your own. The poems are reminders of numerous uncomfortable and neglected words and meanings, pleurably assembled into cabinets of poetic curiosity. Jake Schneider, Poetry Editor, SAND and Translation Editor, S T I L L KJ Hannah Greenbergs poems challenge our eyes to fight, our minds to race, our ears to reach. A Grand Sociology Lesson seethes with momentum and complexity, and inspires in readers an urge to simultaneously coast and chase. Its sprawling cast of substances, personas, creatures and institutions delight as they disarm and disarray. Patrick Williams, Founder and Editor-in Chief, Really System This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
