Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Have you ever been put down by a classmate at school? Have you ever felt impatient when your friends don't listen to you? Do you ever wish your siblings or friends would treat you fairly? Well, so did Joseph. His siblings sold him off to slavery, he was wrongly imprisoned in jail, and he was made fun of for being true to himself. But despite these injustices, he listened to and obeyed God, and you know what? He ended up as one of the most powerful leaders in Egypt! If God can help him, He can help you! Join author Lois Comeaux as she dissects the story of Joseph, and learn how he participated in an awesome, intimate relationship with God. Joseph lived through many trials in his life—just like you will. Sometimes he was frustrated and angry, but he continued to pray. The Lord helped him not only live a better life for himself but forgive and save his family from their hardships. Sunday school teachers, parents, and teachers will love this informative Bible...
