Housing Yearbook, 1942 (Classic Reprint)

By Coleman Woodbury

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Housing Yearbook, 1942 This volume is frankly an economy Yearbook. Unfortunately the only effective way to reduce costs in a publication of this kind is to cut things out; so we have left out this year the long section on state and local housing activity, the shorter account of Naho's doings, and the editors annual summary. Our regret about the state and local section is lightened somewhat by our tentative plan to include it, possibly in revised form, every other year or so. Yearbook readers will thus be able to keep in direct touch with developing local programs, and the repetition that has crept unavoidably into this section in past Yearbooks will be less. This year seemed to be a good one to start skipping the section, both because many local authorities simply have been finishing up work under way and also because war housing problems are dealt with in considerable detail in other parts of the Yearbook. The story of Naho's principal activities has been running serially in Naho News and is...

Reviews

The ideal ebook i actually read through. It really is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. Its been written in an remarkably simple way and it is just after i finished reading this ebook where in fact modified me, affect the way i think.
