MM MFF and MFM scenes What happens when your whole family is scarier than any nightmare and you have no desire to be anything like them Do you stay and go along with the family plans or do you rebel and have them possibly turn their viciousness on you Jennifer Johnston experiences first hand why whispers are spoken in the dark about her species being evil when she was just a century old. What should have been another family dinner spent arguing over why she didnt want to keep the bloodlines pure by being married off to her older brother turned into a nightmare and left her with more than tortured memories. Jackson Dawls and Taylor Durham had been pack mates, best friends, and the others mate for as long as they could remember. They were a deadly species all their own but even they feared the Mystics and their overly cruel and barbaric ways, but unforeseen circumstances bring them face to face with not one but a few. Will there lives be in danger or is something great and unexpected awaiting them They also have to stay under the radar of the human society that is set out to destroy those they believe to be Tarnished and a danger to mankind. When the three meet long ago secrets are brought to the light. Secrets no one but Jennifer knew. Not only do they have to learn to get along with each other because they are fated, someone is also stalking Jennifer and performing sinister acts without her being any the wiser. Jennifer must seek guidance from old acquaintances and form alliances with...
