

The Tragic Imagination: The Literary Agenda (Paperback)

By Dr. Rowan Williams

Oxford University Press, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Literary Agenda is a series of short polemical monographs about the importance of literature and of reading in the wider world and about the state of literary education inside schools and universities. The category of the literary has always been contentious. What is clear, however, is how increasingly it is dismissed or is unrecognised as a way of thinking or an arena for thought. It is sceptically challenged from within, for example, by the sometimes rival claims of cultural history, contextualized explanation, or media studies. It is shaken from without by even greater pressures: by economic exigency and the severe social attitudes that can follow from it; by technological change that may leave the traditional forms of serious human communication looking merely antiquated. For just these reasons this is the right time for renewal, to start reinvigorated work into the meaning and value of literary reading. This short but thought-provoking volume asks the question What is it that tragedy makes us know? . The focus is on tragedy as a mode of representing the experience of radical suffering, pain, or loss, a mode of...
