Not illustrated. 1906 Excerpt: .Priest s address referring to the use in open Chapter of books as guides to the secret work. Your Committee recommend that this be discontinued during the opening, closing and conferring of degrees, and that nothing but the adopted work of this Grand Chapter be used at all. We recommend that the rule adopted by the Grand Secretary, requiring the Past High Priest to take a receipt from his successor for the books furnished, by the Grand Secretary, to the High Priests of Subordinate Chapters, containing the secret work, be continued and made the law of this Grand Chapter, and that he be directed to withhold rituals from Chapters that have not made their returns. At the annual election of Officers the M. . E. . Companion William A. Bodenhamer was chosen Grand High Priest and the R. . E. . C omp. Frederic Speed was continued as Grand Secretary. The Grand Chapter proceeded to the installation of its Grand Officers, the retiring Grand High Priest calling upon Most Excellent Companion Frederic Speed to perform that function, when the following were duly installed into their respective offices: The Grand High Priest named the standing Committees, and after prayer by the Grand Chaplain the Grand Chapter closed in Ample Form. We excerpt the following article, not only because wo admire the personal and Masonic ability of its gifted author, but as well for the desire we feel to add to the circulation among the Fraternity of the...
