What are you leaving behind for others to remember you by A life insurance policy Perhaps a family heirloom In Caught Between Life and Death, Marcia Cole, believing herself on deaths edge, writes her will. Her son, Danny, has just returned from the hostile Iraqi desert and announces his newfound career choice. Is this purpose guiding him or something else Concerned for her sons obsession to be part of Hollywoods rich and famous, the author looks deep within her own frailties to leave behind something more valuable than just a life insurance policy and some family heirlooms. Inspired by her son, the author cleverly finds a unique way of leaving behind a part of herself through a tale of wealth, poverty, and faith. In an attempt to give her son a new perspective on money, power, and fame, in her will she tells the story of her encounter with her boss and co-workers, all of whom represent different economic worldviews and socio-economic classes. Glimpsing into these three lives, Cole reveals these mens philosophy, which is tested, only to fail. As their lives intertwine with the authors, the reader finds a journey fraught with all too familiar problems and situations, ending with the author overcoming her personal struggle with faith through these relationships. Caught Between Life and Death exposes valuable lessons that shed new light on old perceptions giving us new hope for old problems. This item ships from multiple locations.
