

The Atheist's Daughter (Paperback)

By Renee Harrell

Hunting Monsters Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Reviewed on Can't Put It Down Reviews: Having just finished this novel, I immediately took it upstairs to my 13 year old stepdaughter and said, You have to read this! She gave me a quizzical look and I said, Yes, it is THAT good! Kristin Faraday has a power. A terrible power. Trapped in the small and suffocating town of Winterhaven, Kristin worries because she's different from her family and friends. Different from the boy she loves. She knows other people's secrets because she can tell, with certainty, when they're lying to her. She doesn't realize this ability is a gift from Mrs. Norton, the woman who murdered her father. When Mrs. Norton and her family return to Winterhaven, Kristin discovers she's the only one who can see them for what they truly are. The family isn't human. They feed on humans. Mrs. Norton is aware that Kristin is the one person who can stop them - if she only knew how. But that's one secret Kristin Faraday hasn't learned. Reviewed on...
