Improvement Era, Vol. 12: September, 1909 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Joseph F Smith

Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Improvement Era, Vol. 12: September, 1909 A house without books is like a room without windows. No man has a right to bring up his children without surrounding them with books, if he has the means to buy them. It is a wrong to his family. Children learn to read by being in the presence of books. The love of knowledge comes with reading and grows upon it. And the love of knowledge in a young mind, is almost a warrant against the inferior excitement of passions and vices. - H. Mann. Books are masters, who instruct us without rods or ferrules, without words or anger, without bread or money. If you approach them, they are not asleep; if you seek them, they do not hide; if you blunder, they do not scold; if you are ignorant, they do not laugh at you. R. DE bury. Except a living man there is nothing more wonderful than books! A message to us from the dead, from human souls we never saw, who lived, perhaps, thou, sands of miles away, and...
