NEW HAVEN, CONN; FEDERAL BUILDING: CORNERSTONE LAID JUNE 4, 1914 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from New Haven, Conn; Federal Building: Cornerstone Laid June 4, 1914 But however much each member of this committee performed to the best of his power and opportunity the work in hand, it would have been without avail had it not been for the splendid cooperation and help received from those whom this body of New Haven citizens succeeded in interesting in the cause. And in my brief reference to the men that thus aided in the success of this enterprise, I must first place the name of our dear, lamented fellow townsman and friend, the Hon. N. D. Sperry, who was then in his last days as a Congressman. And this fact. I am sure, induced many of the members of Congress who might otherwise have opposed the project, to vote for it as a memorial to one who. by reason of his many ears of service in the Congress of the United States, had made every one his friend. Nor should we forget the splendid help. received at a most critical time in the progress of this project, from the Hon. Morgan G. Bulkeley. who with the aid of Senator Frank B. Brandegee succeeded in carrying the bill over the dangerous Senate shoals. For here our greatest danger lay. And then, too, we should not forget in our thanks the Hon. John Q. Tilson, the successor of Mr. Sperry, who devoted so much time and energy in the success of the work. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
