Ever feel as though life is crazy, hard to manage, or just plain chaotic? Ever feel like you are reacting to everything and proactively dealing with nothing? This book was written to help manage these situations by providing frameworks that will help you to your organize thoughts into actions. Hope Is Not A Strategy provides eight different frameworks that will help you to think, respond and proactively deal with many different situations. Originally written to help business leaders take on the challenge of managing people and the complexities of corporate life, the frameworks shared here can also be applied to everyday life. Each framework is explained in detail and given context through real world examples. Hope is Not a Strategy helps with the complexity of life . because chaos is a part of life, but dealing with it doesn t have to be chaotic.
