Excerpt from Supplement to the Manual: Statistics and Reports of the Second Presbyterian Church of Cleveland, O., For the Year Ending April 1, 1891 Year after year we have been permitted to bring to you this part of the Sabbath School work, seeming always the same, and yet always different. By removals and promotions we are continually changing. We have lost one of our number by death during the year. Prevailing illness has interfered greatly with our attendance, and such interruptions in a primary class mean a great deal. The latter part of the year our lessons have been in the Old Testament, but the class have appeared greatly interested and the lessons and truths remembered have seemed wonderful. God has promised, My word shall not return unto me void. What strength that may bring to any teacher of the word. Children, however young, never fail to be impressed with God's word. Our number has grown less the past year, as it has for a few years; I can only account for it in our present school hour. You...

This kind of publication is every little thing and taught me to look ahead of time and a lot more. It is packed with wisdom and knowledge. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
