Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 192 pages. Hes her first chance at love. Shes his last. Free spirit Aphra Porter never thought Isaac Lightfoot would remember the letter she wrote to him years before. But by some miracle, he does. Now a successful Web site designer in her thirties, Aphra meets the man whose writing talents shes always idolizedan encounter that leaves her spinning. No longer is Isaac a distant image, but a flesh and blood man who looks at her like no one has looked at her before. A critically acclaimed author and Vietnam war hero, Isaac is one tough bear of a man. Faced with the physical and emotional scars of war, a relationship with a daunting age difference, and an ex-wife bent on tearing Aphra from his life, hes about to learn that leaving the past behind and building a new life can be the toughest battle of all. Reviews and Other Information: Thomma Grindstaffs work is more slowly paced and introspective than much in the way of todays romances, yet the many layers of depth here have appeal. The story is plausible, and the characters interaction and growth is both plausible and pleasurable. Grindstaffs work offers a certain insightful, even visceral understanding of the human heart. Long and Short ReviewsThe story and plot were very well written . . . Isaac and Aphra fall in love easily and quickly when he hires her to revamp his dull web site. They struggle through typical relationship woes: ex-spouses, children, communication issues, other people who want to interfere in the relationship. The biggest issue of the relationship is the 20-year age difference between them. The story really has you rooting for Aphra and Isaac to work everything out and to become a strong couple. You cant help but love...
