This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. A solid historical from Edgar-winner Heffernan. --Publishers Weekly Mystery fans will zip through this, fans of historical fiction will enjoy the fin de guerre mood. --Library Journal Heffernan swings his vivid tale back and forth between past and present, war and peace--a neat tour de force he pulls off with admirable assurance. --Kirkus Reviews Moving back and forth in time, the well-paced narrative involves the reader with powerfully vivid descriptions of horrendous battles like the Wilderness and Gettysburg, of terrible raids on civilians, and of great physical and mental anguish suffered by the soldiers. Heffernan skillfully presents a realistic and evocative tale of war and its lingering effects. --Historical Novels Review Heffernan, three times nominated for a Pulitzer Prize and an Edgar Award winner, knows his history and his mysteries . . . This is really a story of war and redemption and what happens to idealistic kids who have to turn into killers. --Globe Mail (Canada) Sliding back and forth in time--before, during, and after...
