

Redefining Success: Real Women, Real Stories, Real Inspiration (Paperback)

By Sarah Walton

Ally Nathaniel E-Publishing Services, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Are you tired of all the get rich quick and having it all books out there? Do you feel that today s business books lack honesty and therefore inspiration? In a world full of Kardashians and fake reality shows this new book is a breath of fresh air. Who really defines success? How do we define it for ourselves? Chances are, it s not what you ve been taught. While making money is a key goal for most, many women have come to realize that health, happiness, growth, and mentoring others are equally important in the overall equation of success; and that success rarely means the same thing for women as it does for men. With that in mind, 14 female entrepreneurs have come together to share their intimate success stories to inspire more women to take the steps toward financial independence and personal success. This book offers a unique point of view through the adventures, struggles, and joy these women experienced on their roads to success. Learn the truth about managing your own *happiness *learning from mentors *Shedding the myths...
