Believe it or not, most people do not consider themselves charismatic while they know people who are. It s also true that people are born to be charismatic, but the fact is, you can work on this as a skill and become more charming, likeable, attractive, confident, and build rapport with anyone you d like. This book is educational, but importantly, it is also inspirational as it will truly help you become more likable and develop your true personality as human and social creature. If you re ready for this transformation,...
