Helen Juliet, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Nicholas Herald had one job to do for his big sister s wedding. ONE. So of course, he forgets all about promising to book the harpist he knows for the elegant reception. With only a week to go, and his options running out fast, he resorts to asking a busker he finds performing on the city streets to step in and help save the day. As it turns out though, this guy Fynn is pretty amazing with his guitar, and he has the most beautiful eyes - not that Nicholas is looking. But it becomes quickly apparent that finding a musician is the least of Nicholas s problems. Between last minute cancellations, wayward family members, and a cat with a serious vendetta against happiness, he knows he ll be lucky if they all make it to the big day intact. He just doesn t have time to fall in love, let alone with a boy. However, like almost everything else in the week to come, he may not exactly have a choice. A stand alone, New Adult romance with a happy ending. 100,000 words approx.
