When the Coltonville express office is robbed and the clerk is murdered, Will Grant is arrested for the crime. Found at the scene--wounded and holding the smoking gun that was used in the shooting of the clerk--Grant stands trial, is found guilty, and is sentenced to prison. A year into his sentence, Grant is released when the dying confession of one of the thieves exonerates him. He returns to Coltonville, where he is given a hostile reception by most of the locals, who remain skeptical about his innocence. Supporting Grant s efforts to clear his name are his friend Steve Collins and his sister Mary. Also playing a role in the robbery investigation is the beautiful Nora Masters, a new reporter who has more than just a passing interest in Grant s case. However, Grant s status is further complicated when money from the express office robbery begins to surface for the first time--within days of his return.
