

Managing Medicines in Schools (Primary Professional Development)

By Walton, Mike

Folens Publishers UK, U.S.A., 1998. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. The Folens Primary Professional Development series offers teachers, Heads and others working in primary education a sharp focus on contemporary professional development topics. The series is designed to give the reader a concise view of the topic, together with clear guidance for practical action in school and to provide examples of good practice. Managing Medicines in Schools addresses the issues surrounding children's medical needs in primary schools and how to deal with them. The book contains detailed guidance, a template for forming a whole school policy, and advice relating to four of the most common conditions affecting primary-age school children - asthma, diabetes, epilepsy and anaphylaxia.
