But who will marry her and connect themselves with her debt-ridden and dishonorable drunken rake of a brother? Sir Richard Fitzwilliam, Earl of Matlock, knows he needs to marry again and produce an heir. His beloved daughter, Bethany Anne, also needs a mother. But after the misery of his short marriage to Anne de Bourgh, he is determined to marry only the right woman. Pursued relentlessly for his title and wealth, how will he know when he finds her? He audaciously prays for the fulfillment of two signs! First, she will remind him of Lizzy, the woman he loved and lost. And second, she will look as if Bethany could have possibly been her natural daughter.
