Excerpt from The Revolution of 1848, Dr. Hermann Kiefer, Chairman of the Freiburg Meeting This volume contains the most essential Liberty writings of the late Dr. Hermann Kiefer, the Chairman of the Freiburg meeting of March 26, 1848. The Offenburger resolutions, the Struve motion, the program of the May resolution and the Common Laws of the German People are reprinted from the original resolutions and pamphlets preserved by Dr. Kiefer in order to give a proper perspective to the writings of the Idealist of 1848. Dr. Kiefer's translations from the Greek, Latin and Italian, likewise letters containing observations on the social and political conditions in America, diaries kept on travels in Germany and addresses and papers on the natural sciences and the profession of the practice of medicine, have not been included in this work.
