In the case of Clyde, the order of the Quarter Sessions was made on the 11th of December, 1835; and application was made forthwith. The County Commissioners declined compliance with the order of the Quarter Sessions, on the ground that there were no funds in the County Treasury applicable to this purpose. And now, on the return of the rule, Dallas for the County Commissioners, read their affidavit, setting forth in substance: That they had ascertained from the Treasurer of the County, that there did not exist at the time, and had not existed during the current year, adequate funds for the payment...

This publication may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
