Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Chloe s hand touched the side of the pool and the water dropped on his face. He stood up just as she pulled herself up, gasping for breath. He reached out before she had a chance to surface and grabbed her hair pushing her face back under the water. She pushed away from the hand that held her captive. She tried to stand. She needed air and she needed it bad. She kept trying to pull free, but the person that held her under the water had his hands entangled in her hair; and she couldn t get away. Darkness threatened but still she tried. And then nothing.
