Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 1994. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Three for the Money, is the second of the four sequential, period, mystery adventure novels. They are a chronologically set series, starting in 1936 with One for the Show ; 1948 Three for the Money ;, 1950 Four to Get Ready, and 1958 TWO to GO. They are liberally laced with violence, sex, nostalgia and a lot of laughs. It s written in the first person, in visual terms, because the author enjoys it that way. It s much more difficult but also considerably more rewarding with the personal added effect. This novel is matched to the 40s period with several flashbacks with weird, echoing sound effects. The story is a classic murder mystery with great rave reviews, For example; Terrance P. Ayrault; is currently a professional movie producer, Director, writer, etcetera. I would call Three for the Money a real page turner but I read it electronically and there were no pages to turn. Either way, it captivated me like a classic caper, keeping me in suspense while entertaining me all along the way with colorful language and snappy dialogue that helped set each scene in this post-WWII piece. If you like crime novels, this one rivals the works of Spillane, Tey and Christie-but does it in half the time. It s a real romp around the world and a craftily-woven work of genius that kept me guessing until the end. Miller s grasp of the era and the cadence of his dialogue make this frolic extremely fun to read and left me wanting more. Four to Get Ready. - Terrance P. Ayrault Yo Thanks for spending your time with me. One for the Money is in the final proof...
