

The Bun Boy of Baker (Paperback)

By David Putnam

Deputy Dave Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Bun Boy of Baker is the story of three women and a deputy sheriff who have fled society to a small desert town to escape their lives and their vices. The deputy, a sexual compulsive, is there to hide from women and an awful mistake that haunts him. Of the three women, one is out for revenge, one is hiding from an estranged boyfriend and tracking a dangerous criminal, and the third has a gambling addiction and is in search of acceptance and love. In the end, only two find what they are looking for. The Bun Boy of Baker has the grittiness of a Tarantino movie and the humor of an Elmore Leonard novel. A sexy fun crime romp, where one deputy sheriff in a small town tries to juggle four women as part of his misguided attempt to forget what torments him.
