Excerpt from Abnakee Rugs: A Manual Describing the Abnakee Industry, the Methods Used, With Instructions for Dyeing It is to consider the other side of the question that this pamphlet is written. How shall educated and trained men and women, who go into the country, use their influence to keep the country-bred youth at home It is obvious the most important thing is to give them congenial and remunerative employment, as it is to seek employment that they have left their homes. A recent investigation made by a New England governor results in the significant statement that New England cannot compete in agricultural products with the great Western states that she must depend upon her commercial and industrial enterprises, not only in the large cities, but also that they must be developed throughout the rural communities if New England is to retain her population and wealth.
