Is President Abbot Putin under siege John McLucifer, a no-nonsense-Russian mafia man, with his forehead honored with a black scorpion tattoo, blessed with his dog, and one baddie, robbed the Orenburg Central Police Station of its guns, pistols, dynamites and other assault ammunitions. The scoundrels with their superior firepower, raided the Central Bank, and the Automatic Teller Machine (ATM), snatched millions of dollars, and killed three people. A Magistrate and a Miss World were among the victims of the escapade. When the local operatives intensified manhunt to apprehend the outlaws, the crooks slaughtered seventy-seven traders in the city Megastores, in a pool of blood. During the securitys plot to kill the bandits, the sheriff became a scapegoat. And when President Abbot Putin employed a Russian-Israeli secret detective, Dan Sharon, and the American detective dog, M-17, to restore law and order in the city, the criminals, held the Presidents only son, Valery Putinov hostage. Will the President negotiate with the hijackers The author promised you readers a soul-entertaining read. You cant afford to drop this book until you turn to the last page. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
