By Lance Lambert

Wooded Isle Press LLC, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Every car guy has stories that elicit laughter, tears and admission of some bad choices. Lance Lambert s Fenders, Fins Friends: Confessions of a Car Guy includes tales of riding in a 1939 ford as the steering wheel was removed and handed to him. Installing a siren in a 1955 Ford proved to be a bad decision. Putting five friends as far back as possible in a rock band s van resulted in wheels stands and applause from admiring fans. Sitting in a 1949 Chevrolet while surrounded by five police cars and numerous guns pointed his direction caused some concern. Fenders, Fins Friends: Confessions of a Car Guy reveals all that is good about the world of old cars and why being a Car Guy is the best way to enjoy life. . .The history of our automobile traditions is safe in your hands. Lee Iacocca, Automotive Industry Icon Lance s stories are a joyride to simpler times when unbridled enthusiasm and unchallenged optimism were all it took for car crazy young men to tackle any dream, scheme or machine....
