If other forces besides gravity have a part in determining the positions of the heavenly bodies, the moon is unquestionably that one which will earliest exhibit traces of these actions; and the motion of the perigee is one of the things most likely to give us advice of them. Hence I propose, in this memoir, to compute the value of this quantity, so far as it depends on the mean motions of the sun and moon, with a degree of accuracy that shall leave nothing further to be desired.
