E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 13 called for legislation that would codify the core Fair Information Practices. Specifically, the FTC found that only 20 percent of a random sample of major commercial websites have implemented all four fair information practices of notice, choice, access, and security. And, even among the 100 most popular U. S. commercial web sites, only 42 percent had implemented these principles. The vote in favor of this recommendation was 3 - 2. Commissioner Leary concurred in part and dissented in part (recommending, among other things, more narrow legislation that only requires notice but that covers the online and offline marketplace). Commissioner Swindle dissented on grounds that evidence existed showing consumers were increasingly protected by industry self-regulatory efforts and this process should not be inhibited prematurely by regulation. More recent figures obtained using the FTCs survey methodology show significant improvement since the FTCs report two years ago. A report of the Progress and Freedom Foundation, re-leased in...
