Miller was born in Canton, Stark County, Ohio, in 1858. His father, William K. Miller, a second cousin of William McKinley, managed all of the latter s congressional campaigns, and for many years his son was secretary of McKinley s Campaign Committee. After graduation from the Canton High School in 1877, Charles R. Miller entered the law office of Major McKinley as a student, and two years later was admitted to practice, after examination by a committee of which the late Governor George K. Nash was chairman, heading his class with a grade of 99. After a year s work with the firm of Estep and Squire, of Cleveland, he opened an office for himself at Canton. Three years later he married Evelyn Rose, daughter of the late William G. Rose, of Cleveland. In 1886 he formed a law partnership with Senator Atlee Pomerene, which continued until his removal to Cleveland in 1901. In 1891 he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States, his sponsor being William H. Taft. He early took an interest in military affairs, having been connected with the Eighth Ohio Infantry, in which he attained to a captaincy, with a commission dating back in 1893. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American War, upon the recommendation of General Sharpe, U. S. A., he was appointed Captain and Assistant Adjutant General, and assigned to duty with the 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 2nd...
