

The Dante Deception: A Natalie Brandon Thriller (The Natalie Brandon Thrillers) (Volume 2)

By Jenni Wiltz

Decanter Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 560 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.4in. The most dangerous enemy is the one closest to your heart. Natalie Brandon has a secret. She knows a 700-year-old Dante manuscript up for auction is a fake, but no one believes her because she was diagnosed with schizophrenia as a child. To stop the auction, she enlists the help of her sister Beth, a history professor. But when the forgers scheme begins to crumble, he seeks revenge. . . because the sisters have cost him more than money. Natalie and Beth have just disrupted an even bigger plot - a web of lies spun over forty years and four countries, ensnaring a British baron, a Bolshoi ballerina, a Russian mobster, and the seductive Soviet defector who ties them all together. Can Natalie save her sister and catch the forger. . . without turning the forces of an international conspiracy against them? Travel back to 2007, five years before the events of The Romanov Legacy. . . and see how Natalie, Beth, Constantine, Viktor, Vadim, and Liliya choose the paths that led them to their fate. The Dante Deception is a fast-paced stand-alone thriller in the Natalie Brandon series....
