Paperback. Condition: New. 66 pages. This tale is included in the anthologies Willful Women and Willful Women II. Leah Dallaire About SAM delves into the adventureromance genre. Intrigue and plot twists make this story about a seemingly ordinary housewife working as a government agent a fast-paced page turner. Housewife Jane, aka Sam, leads a double life. She is married with children, shuttles the kids around in the family mini van, and has a marriage facing its challenges. Unknown to family and friends, she is also an agent for Homeland Security. Characters include Jane (Sam), her husband Jim, kids Matt and Melissa, old friend from army days Dex, and her agency boss Chip. The reader comes to empathize with Jane as she has everyday issues. Family finances are in poor shape as her husband is facing challenging times in his job. He drinks too much and has a kiss with the taste of an ashtray. The kids are young and demand a lot of Janes time. Special friend Dex offers a breath of fresh air to Janes need for romance in her life. Should she pursue it Both she and Dex are experienced in military special operations and can kick ass with the best of them. In one segment, Jane and family are visiting Floridas Disney World and take a side trip to watch a space shuttle launch from the beach. Dex is also there working in one of his security roles when terrorists launch an attack. Here is an excerpt: One of the terrorists leapt out from the back of the van and was preparing to launch his missile. It would take about five to seven seconds to complete the multi-step firing process and get a lock-on for target acquisition. Sam and Dex werent about to give this maniac those...
