I do want to believe Success Story, because it has done us a huge favor in reputation and overall mystique Dave Richards. A note about the band: Mojo Pin are one of the greatest bands to ever storm a stage, in any arena and in any country. A phenomenal quartet who have travelled to hell and back, losing members, losing sense, developing bad habits but all the while managing to survive unscathed. Their music is known all over the world, owning a fan base that seems to grow more and more each day. This is their story. A note about the magazine: B Scene magazine is a Leeds based magazine owned and edited by creator Saul Hudson. What started out as a small underground paper detailing up and coming gigs of all of the local bands within Leeds, York and Wakefield area, the magazine began issuing article on demo reviews, album reviews released by any local bands. The magazine soon grew from its underground links to become one of the most highly selling music magazines in...
