Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Hone s Interesting History of the Memorable Blood Conspiracy A right Reverend Prelate once informed the good people of this country, that they had nothing to do with the laws but to obey them; and many genteel persons are so favourable to the doctrine, that they are scandalised at every expression of honest indignation excited by some notable proof of their impolicy, partiality, or injustice. The indulgence claimed for the laws, too, must be extended to their administrators; and we are gravely called upon, not only to make the usual allowances for human infirmity, but absolutely to forego that vigilance and exposure of abuses, without which laws would soon become the mere discretion of the magistracy. Now, with ail due respect to the powers that be, it may be contended that almost every improvement, both in theory and practice has originaled in this country from Extra-Official interference i and that public opinion, freely but decently expressed, is as essential to the regulation of the magistrate as the criminal. All the world knows what implicit confidence...
