Verso Books, United Kingdom, 2001. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Determinations is both an uncompromising Marxian engagement with a n erstwhile postcolonial theory and a set of new critical readings of a body of postcolonial narratives, mainly Latin American. Its central propositions are twofold: first, that the national question, however its terms have changed, is the still under-theorized and unresolved problem that haunts the hyper-abstractions and mystifications of postcolonial theory and other ideological flights into globalization ; second, the important insight into the close cultural link between nation and narration must be carried further so as to disclose their concretely historical, fully determinate relationship. In essays that first engage the current theoretical parlances of ambivalence , hybridity and the subaltern , and that go on to flesh out the alternative political narratology through the readings of Cortazar, Carpentier, Garcia Marquez, Rulfo and Vargas Llosa, Larsen concludes with critical reassessment of Benedict Anderson s Imagined Communities. In place of cultural essentializing of third-worldisms and of the indeterminacies of Bhabhaite or Spivakian textualism, Determinations develops a dialectical, radically historicized account of the national and the colonial as literary and cultural mediations.
