Agricultural Economics Research, Vol. 20: April 1968 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By United States Department of Agriculture

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Agricultural Economics Research, Vol. 20: April 1968 Each production year is treated by the model as a different decision problem for farmers. Hence a different programming problem with profit maximization as the objective is defined for each year. Of course, a different problem is also specified for each resource situation. The farmer, when making plans for next year, knows that he cannot influence the prices he pays and receives, nor does he know what yields he will obtain. We assume that he formulates his expectations largely on the basis of recent experience. Accordingly, the price and yield data in the programming problem for each year-the data we assume to represent farmers expectations-are based on data for the preceding year(s).
