Excerpt from Reports of the Percy Salden Trust Expedition to the Indian Ocean in 1905, Under the Leadership of Mr. J. Stanley Gardiner, M.A, Vol. 3 On August 22, Fryer left the Seychelles, after a two days visit to us in Silhouette, on the brig Charlotte, Capt. Pareou, for Astove, Cosmoledo, Assumption and Aldabra. A short report on the first three islands, at each of which he had a few days stay, appeared in Nature of Dec. 17, 1908. He reached the Aldabra group on Sept. 13, and remained on those islands until Jan. 24, 1909. M. D emmerez de Charmoy, the enlightened owner, had given orders that every facility Should be placed at Fryer s disposal and he was provided with a pirogue and six men while houses were built for him in four situations so that he might examine the whole of the group. His work during this, the summer season at Aldabra, must have been, as we know by our own experience elsewhere, arduous in the extreme on an island of jagged coral, covered with hard wooded Pemphis acidula, through...
