Paperback. Condition: New. Fiona (illustrator). 120 pages. Imagine a future where paid companionship is legal. Imagine a future where recreational drug use is legal. Imagine a future where people negotiate their own pay rates for any way they wish to sell their talents and services. Imagine a future where bill collectors are feared more than the government. Now imagine the characters from the first Suki Adult Romance Series living in that world. Not quite a Libertarian Utopia, not quite a dystopia either. Welcome to Sukis new world. Both the laws and society have evolved in a more open and libertarian direction than what we are used to today. Recreational drug use and prostitution are open, common, and legal. The story opens with lavish office party. Jung, is president of the party planning firm and is watching over the operation. China, a beautiful young Asian woman and a Vice-President of the planning firm for the party, is on a date with Dennis Bohannon, the chief partner of the law firm throwing the party and stays obediently at his side. The true nature of the date becomes apparent in the Presidential Suite of the Ritz. China is a paid date for the boss, commanding the highest rates on the East Coast. Her mothers business is the most expensive full-service firm. The story continues with a detailed view of the night through Chinas eyes to the next morning, in the safe suite where all of the overnight workers change back to their...
