Tmrt Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. David C Jensen (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A collection of over 160 of Moliere s funniest monologues in new rhymed iambic pentameter versions by actor/author Timothy Mooney (author of Acting at the Speed of Life and Moliere than Thou), drawn from new versions of seventeen of Moliere s plays, including Tartuffe, The Misanthrope, Don Juan, The School for Wives and The Imaginary Invalid. The book works as introduction to the life and work of Moliere, as well as providing a rare resource of new comic classical monologues for the actor preparing to audition. The text gives thorough introduction to each of the seventeen plays, with introductory plot capsules, as well as contextual information for each individual piece, making each monologue and each play easily graspable to the actor that needs to know why he or she is speaking these particular words, and to the scholar eager to find out why these plays caused such a sensation surrounding the man often dubbed as the French Shakespeare. The book includes a distilled version of Mooney s acting text, with essential guides toward the performance of classical verse monologues, and provides stopwatch-timings of each piece, as a guide for actors who are working under specific time limits. The volume features a preface by William Luce (author of The Belle of Amherst, and Barrymore), and illustrations by David C. Jensen. From the cover: *Nail That Classical Audition!
