Excerpt from First Report of the Committee Dealing With the Law and Practice: Relating to the Acquisition and Valuation of Land for Public Purposes The First Report of the Committee (under the Chairmanship of Mr. Leslie Scott, K. C., M. P.) on the Acquisition and Valuation of Land for Public Purposes deals with the acquisition of land (more particularly under compulsory powers) in England and Wales. Questions of valuation and of the extension of the principles of the First Report to special branches of the question of acquisition of land and of rights over or under land (e.g., in connection with mining developments) are reserved for further specific Reports by the Committee. The main recommendations of their First Report are directed to an extension of the principle of compulsory acquisition for purposes in the public interest, and to a simplification of procedure for the application of such powers, subject to provision for just compensation to the owner affected. The question of reducing the cost and simplifying the process of obtaining Parliamentary powers for the execution of works and public purposes generally is also treated in the Report (which is published at the same time) of the Committee on the Acquisition of Powers, of which Sir George Murray, G.C.B., was Chairman. The two Committees have, however, necessarily approached the general question of simplification in existing procedure for the grant of powers from different points of view in accordance with their respective terms of reference. The deliberations of Sir George Murray s Committee were mainly directed to the better adaptation of existing machinery, for the grant of powers generally, to the needs of Local Authorities. Their recommendations in regard to bringing up to date Acts...
