Blood Country: A Nashville Sideman Mystery In Nashville, it s conventional wisdom that if you re a sideman looking for work in the music business, you d better have a steady day job. Guitarist Joe Rose has a day job, and his business card reads: Sideman Investigations, Put Someone on Your Side. Rose is hired by strung out Country Music superstar Vern Hamlin, already a guitar legend in music circles at the age of 36. Vern, who s also a producer and president of Great Axe Music, employs Rose to reopen a twenty year old murder case-the killing of his father King Hamlin. Before his death, King was a successful country singer himself and an even better businessman. He left a sizeable estate when he died, all under the umbrella of Hamlin Enterprises. The company includes several auto dealerships throughout the South, furniture plants in Mexico, a casket plant in Danesberg, Tennessee, vast real estate holdings, and the more publicly recognizable music company, Great Axe, now run by his son Vern. Vern s decision to reopen his...
