Not illustrated. 1868 Excerpt: .the Abbe Halluin, and by the same Mission of St. Vincent-de-Paul, an orphanage for 200 apprentices has been established. In this house the apprentices at work during the day in different workshops of the town receive board and lodging. The proceeds of their labour go towards defraying the expenses of their maintenance, and the rest is made up by voluntary contributions and by grants from the commune and the department. It is in fact a charitable institution; the inmates have regular hours for meals and for sleep as in a boarding school; in other words it is an asylum for apprentices. In conclusion, M. Maignen suggests one or two measures for the improvement of the condition of apprenticeship. He says, -- I must give utterance to my wish that the excellent institution of giving prizes for apprenticeship in the schools should be extended. This is an...

Complete information! It's such a great study. It is probably the most amazing book I have got to study. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
