Excerpt: .important order, perhaps , but only indistinct sounds came from his lips, like a weak, unbroken mewling. No one could understand what he wished, and the sick man turned his eyes beseechingly on all in turn. The eunuchs, courtiers, generals and slaves crowded round the dying man, wishing to serve him for the last time, but not knowing how. At times anger flashed into his intelligent, steady eyes: then the mewling seemed angry. Finally Eusebius guessed, and brought him his writing tablet. Joy shone in the emperor s face; he seized the bronze stylus firmly, but awkwardly in his left hand, like a little child. After long efforts he succeeded in making certain scribbles on the soft surface of the yellow wax. The courtiers with difficulty read the word: Baptise. He bent a beseeching glance on Eusebius. All were astonished that they had not understood sooner. The emperor wished to...

An exceptional ebook along with the typeface employed was intriguing to see. It really is simplistic but surprises within the fifty percent of the ebook. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
