Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Certain Knowing is the adventurous and romantic saga of Logan Keohane, a Houston Firefighter who is kidnapped and left stranded, along with two young women, Amanda and Elizabeth Krause, on an isolated island in the middle of a dense Louisiana swamp. Believed killed in a horrendous auto accident, Logan and the girls are left to their own wiles to escape their frightening entrapment. Meanwhile, Morgan O Malley, Logan s girlfriend and soul mate, awaits his return against overwhelming evidence of his demise, forever keeping faith in his quick return to her side. The story begins with Logan s near death experience at a fire scene. An experienced firefighter, Logan goes beyond his physical limits in an effort to extinguish a house fire. During this experience, he envisions a connection with an ancient part of himself. He is uncertain whether his visions are real or imagined. The son of Irish immigrants, Logan grew up traveling between America and Ireland. The fireman begins an in-depth research into his Irish heritage while recovering from his injuries. He has always been proud of his background and now strives to know as much as possible about his family history. He finds a deep connection with ancient Irish history, especially Celtic myth and ritual. His girlfriend, Morgan O Malley, aids in his research. Logan s research also kindles a strong interest within Morgan of her Irish past. Upon his return to work, Logan finds extreme difficulty being at the fire station. He is reluctant to even enter the firehouse upon his arrival. After eventually coercing himself inside, the fireman searches his true desires to remain in his current profession. He dreams of Ireland and everything that represents...
