

Coils of Mortal Flesh

By Ba bila Mutia

Langa Rpcig, Cameroon, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 138 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The diverse voices in the poems in this collection are unified in the single voice of the omnipresent persona who appears to be searching for a collective voice, some kind of order or rhythm that would impose meaning to life. Reading the poems constitutes an individual journey. This poetic journey from Awakening that takes the reader to Moonlight Spells Wreaths and leads her/him through Laments to the Epilogue is a continuous movement in the search for humanity's existence. As a metaphor of self-discovery, the poetic quest is both an expression of, and a search for mankind's elusive self—that single, unbroken umbilical cord that is firmly rooted in the African experience and identity. Ba bila Mutia teaches oral and written literatures, creative writing, advanced writing and research methodology, at the University of Yaounde I. His poetry and short stories have been featured in anthologies and reviews worldwide, and his work has been broadcast on the BBC. In June of 1993 Mutia was honoured by the Berlin Academy of Arts as special guest writer in an international writers...
