

1021 English Idioms in Modern Current Usage (Paperback)

By Prof Vidanage P Karunaratne

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Every language, whether primitive, ancient, medieval, pre-modern or modern possesses its own collection of wise, short, pithy and apt sayings accumulated from the nascent stage of its growth and development. These wise sayings, emerging as a group of words in current usage, are known as Idioms or adages and if they become longer ones as proverbs. Thus, all the idioms may be regarded as words, phrases or expressions which are commonly used in everyday conversation by the native speakers of English. It is found that idioms are very often seem metaphorical thus making the language more colourful and attractive facilitating people to utilize them to express their ideas, opinions and sentiments more vividly as well as more briefly and with clarity. All these idiomatic pithy and apt sayings seem to offer advice to people about how to live in society and also have become successful in transferring some underlying ideas, principles and accepted values of a given culture or a society. Because of the fact that idioms serve as an image or mental picture, they become more appealing and vociferous. By...
