Norman Johnson is a man whose passion is to strive for structure in life that he may be a trendsetter and example to his family and all who looks up to him. Born on September 9, 1968, Norman grew up in Donnelly Homes in the northern part of Trenton, NJ. After dropping out of high school, he began working as a kitchen helper at Trenton State College to support his new family. Realizing the importance of an education, Norman enrolled at the local community college and obtained his G. E. D. while raising his family, which at the time consisted of his longtime girlfriend and three daughters. During his spare time, Johnson enjoys focusing on his hobbies and being with family. In 1998, Norman visited Miracle Tabernacle Church with his family who were already attendees. There, he gave his life to the Lord. Knowing God had a purpose for his life, he was soon afterwards baptized. Under the guidance of his pastor, Russell Bethea, he learned and practiced the disciplines of Christianity. During a three-year wilderness journey of incarceration, his marriage of one year with his...
