Todd Book Publications, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Agent Hutchinson, recovering from near fatal wounds, finds himself once again battling terrorists threatening the security of the United States. This time, he s inserted deep undercover into an identity theft ring. His mission: infiltrate, identify the leaders, destroy the ring. The thieves must test their scheme-the scanning of information on RFID chips embedded in passports, credit cards, and driver s licenses of unsuspecting citizens. With the successful completion of their test including the manipulation and printing of duplicate documents, they are ready to build their terrorists cells across the United States. Catherine Hainsworth believes that her lover is dead, but she continues to become a force in the architecture and building world. Now at the helm of the Daytona Beach Corporation, her designs are sought after around the globe. She seems to have it all, until the most unbelievably horrible thing to ever happen to her threatens her very existence-the kidnapping of her love-child. Unbeknownst to each other, both Hutchinson and Hainsworth cling to the memories of a love once shared, never daring to dream they might be together again.
